Hsin Wen Pao, 19 Hankow Road, Shanghai.
Daily paper. First number, Feb. 17,1893.
Owned by the Sin Wen Pao Co., an American corporation incorporated under the laws of Delaware, with a capital of Tls. 100,000.
Financial position strong. Annual income from advertisements $600,000. Circulation claimed 30,000 in Shanghai and 80,000 elsewhere, but actual circulation probably about 30,000. General reputation excellent and is leading Chinese newspaper in Shanghai.
Caters more especially for the commercial classes. Has established agencies in all important centres in China and has correspondents in London, Berlin, New York, Geneva, Paris, Tokyo and Boston. Does not exchange news. In home politics, stands for high ideals in all matters of public interest; has no political affiliations. As regards foreign affairs inclines to be pro-American and anti-Japanese.

A good advertising medium.
